ELDER LAW

Elder Law Attorneys focus on the variety of legal needs of the elderly. Some of the main areas that make up elder law include, but are not limited to:

- 1) Probate and estate planning and administration,
- 2) Medicaid, disability and other long-term planning/care issues
- 3) Guardianship and conservatorship

Some attorneys have earned the designation “Certified Elder Law Attorney”, or CELA. The National Elder Law Foundation issues this certification. CELA certified attorneys have the enhanced knowledge, skills and experience to be properly identified to the public as certified elder law attorneys.

LOCAL ATTORNEYS

The following attorneys include Elder Law, Probate, Social Security, and Disability among other specialties of interest to elders. Please review websites for more detailed information about the practices. Certified Elder Law Attorneys, who are skilled in all the relevant areas, are noted with the Certified Elder Law Attorney (CELA) designation.
